Clyde Street, Adamsdown, Cardiff, South

Glamorgan CF24 0HU

3 Bedroom 1 Bathroom 2 Receptions

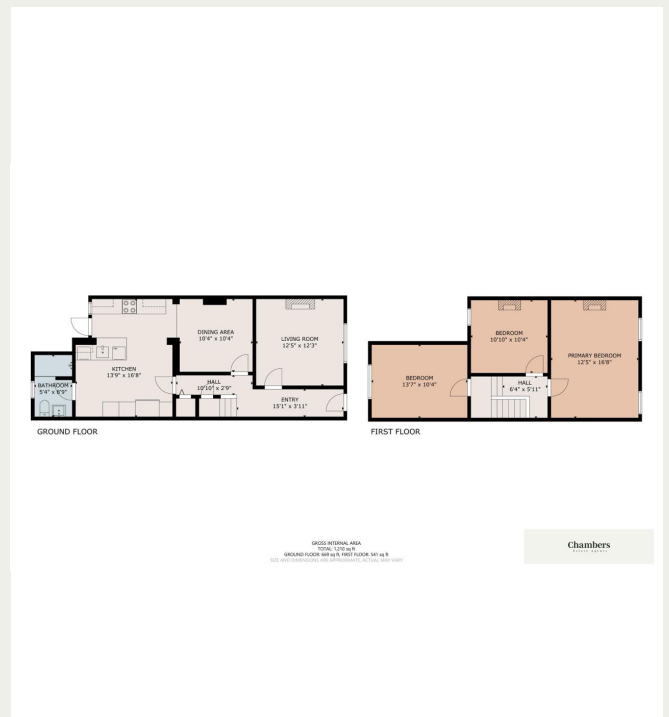

Property Descriptions

Located in the heart of Adamsdown, this well-appointed three-bedroom mid-terrace home on Clyde Street offers a refined balance of period charm and contemporary comfort. Thoughtfully improved by the current owner, the property provides spacious and versatile accommodation within walking distance of Cardiff city centre.

The ground floor unfolds to a welcoming entrance hall leading to a well-proportioned living room and an elegant dining room, ideal for both entertaining and everyday living. The fitted kitchen is designed for modern convenience, while a recently installed shower room adds to the home's practicality. Upstairs, three generously sized double bedrooms offer excellent flexibility, whether for family, guests, or workspace.

Further benefits include gas central heating, an enclosed south-facing rear garden, which has lane access, providing a private outdoor retreat, and on-road permit parking. Clyde Street is enviably positioned just 0.5 miles from Cardiff city centre, offering easy access to the city's retail, dining, and cultural attractions. Cardiff Royal Infirmary is located just 0.3 miles away, while transport links are excellent, with The Square bus stop a short walk away and Cardiff Central station approximately 0.2 miles distant.

For commuters, direct trains to London Paddington take from 1 hour 47 minutes, with frequent departures throughout the day. This stylish
